

Cryptic Bristol Quiz

Can you solve all the clues and name the people, objects and places with links to the history of Bristol?

1. Mamma Mia! This Bristol-backed explorer was trying to find crockery with the assistance of Broderick, Perry and Dave's Band. (4/5)
2. Purple replaced orange to keep the nation's children quenched. Kanye's favourite berry-based beverage, invented in our city. (6)
3. Edmund was enchanted by this exotic confection made by Bristol Quakers. (7/7)
4. Immortalised in stone, this musical emblem loved to listen to his owner speak. (6)
5. Honeymooners! Revisit your memories of this smooth-voiced papal actor with a horrible Scar. FeFe! (6/5)
6. Owner of an on-air airline who knows her Arkwrights from her onions. Harvey is keeping a watchful eye on this aged OBE alumni of Bristol Old Vic. You'll feel good when you win the answer to this clue! (9/4)
7. Location of a US invention where concrete tiers were the first place in the UK that Nutwood's most famous resident could deposit transport. (7/6)
8. Play it cool and pour a large cognac for this superior second-hand car dealer, often on location in our city. (6)
9. Inside this unassuming building, you'll find all sorts of Creature Comforts. If you'd like a steam train, just lay down some tracks. More cheese please! (7/10)
10. These royal chambers are a classic. You'll be Wilde about the flying pig performance. Please sir, can we have some more? (8/5)
11. The first school in England to educate girls, you'll knot want to miss the garden of this Tudor space. (3/5)
12. Wax your moustache, put down your knitting and solve the mystery of this writer, married in Bristol in 1914. (6/8)
13. Bristol's Blitz ballast created a new waterside in the city where James landed his Giant Peach. (3/4)

